Transportation Reform and San Diego:

A Discussion on How the Next Federal Bill can Rebuild San Diego's Economy, Improve Public Health, and Create a 21st Century Transportation Network:

How will the next $500 Billion Federal Transportation Bill affect our local transportation, create jobs, and impact economic growth?

How does improving our built-environment with more walkable and transit-oriented communities impact our tax dollars AND our quality of life?

Come learn what transportation reform means to YOU!

This bill can impact the built environment - the places where you live, work and shop. It can impact how you choose to get moving and whether or not you have to drive a car to get where you are going!

Keynote Speaker:

Honorable Congressman Bob Filner, 51st Congressional District
Member of Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure

-The Next Federal Bill: Priorities and Opportunities-

Other Speakers:

- Mike McKeever, AICP, Executive Director - Sacramento Area Council of Governments
- Reed Vickerman, Vice President of Corporate Operations – Amylin Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
- Jim Sallis, Director of Active Living Research – San Diego State University
- Charles Gandy, Mobility Coordinator – City of Long Beach

Key Discussion Topics Include:

The Path to Economic Recovery and Sustainability

- Ensuring the success of state and regional SB 375 and transportation planning efforts: funding for implementing SANDAG's new Sustainable Communities Strategy and Urban Area Transit Strategy.
- Enhancing our region's economic development through increased federal transit and active transportation funding.

Creating Active, Healthy, Prosperous Communities

- The built environment: the health benefits of walkable, bikeable, transit-oriented communities
- Catalyzing business success: supporting job creation and workforce development, affordable housing and transportation options, and smart growth.
